

In November SoftSol India took part in the annual NASCOM Product Conclave which is the largest gathering of Indian technology start-ups and emerging companies. In its eighth edition, it has gained strength in the past years to become the strongest event of its kind for technology start-ups focused on building technology products out of India.